

2010 Winter Workshop

in conjunction with the Colegio Argentino de Cirujanos Cardiovasculares (CACCV)
13-16 October 2010 • Hotel InterContinental • Buenos Aires, Argentina

Antonio Piazza
Roberto Battellini
Francis D. Ferdinand

Presidente: XIX° CONGRESO ARGENTINO DE CIRUGÍA CARDIOVASCULAR Y ENDOVASCULAR
Winter Workshop Co-Director - CACCV
Winter Workshop Co-Director & Treasurer - ISMICS

13 October 2010

SESSION I

MINIMALLY INVASIVE VALVE

Roberto Battellini

How to Start a Mitral MIC Surgery Program

Anno Diegeler

Aortic Valve Replacement: Facing a Paradigm Shift

Noedir A. G. Stolf

Transapical Implantation of a Transcatheter Brazilian Valve

Pia Myken

Minimally Invasive Aortic Valve Replacement

Hermann Reichenspurner

From Endoscopic to Interventional Mitral Valve Repair - A Surgeon's Perspective

13 October 2010

SESSION II

REVASCULARIZATION

Paul J. Grundeman

Automated Coronary Revascularization: From Androsov to Suyker

Rex Stanbridge

OP-CAB: Training for Innovation

Alex Zapolanski

Optimizing Coronary Surgery: In Pursuit of Zero Mortality

Tohru Asai

Off-Pump Bilateral Skeletonized ITA Grafting Is Superior In Longterm

Keith B. Allen

Revascularization Challenges In Patients with Diffuse Vascular Disease

13 October 2010

SESSION III

ATRIAL FIBRILLATION

Francis D. Ferdinand

Hybrid EP Lab – Cardiac OR for the Maze Procedure

Carlos A. Mestres

Minimal Access Treatment of AF

William E. Cohn

New Approaches for Left Atrial Appendage Exclusion in AF

James D. Fonger

SJTTRI-A Platform for 21st Century Medical Innovation

